Submission Guidelines for Authors

Work-in-Progress

Work-in-Progress papers (extended structured abstracts), are not published in conference proceedings. These submissions will be reviewed by a single reviewer for acceptance and feedback. This allows authors to take both feedback received during the review process and feedback received at the regional conference into account to improve on their papers before submitting them to a journal or the SAAA International Biennial Conference for inclusion in conference proceedings.

NUMBER OF SUBMISSIONS PER AUTHOR

An author can submit a maximum of three (3) WIP papers (either as main or co-author) in total to the regional conference. No changes are allowed with regard to the names of contributing authors after papers have been submitted.

GUIDELINES AND POLICIES

Papers that do not comply with the Guidelines and Policies as set out below will be automatically rejected.

BROAD AUTHOR GUIDELINES

Work-in-Progress track papers should comprise between 750 and no more than 1 000 words and include, as a minimum, preliminary findings. This includes all text, including the reference list.

- The following four subheadings should be included in the abstract: Purpose, Design/methodology/approach, Preliminary findings, and Originality or Contribution.

- The following three sub-headings are optional and could be included if applicable: Research limitations/implications, Practical implications, and Social implications.
- The extended abstract heading should be Arial 16, with the main text Arial 12, using 1.5 spacing throughout the document. The headings in the abstract for the different subheadings should be in Arial 14 caps and bold, with any further headings in bold only, and the headings should not be numbered manually or by using the word functions.
- An approved ethical clearance application should be obtained by the author(s) and included with the paper submission. If ethical clearance was not required by the relevant institution(s), the submitting author should submit a declaration to confirm it from the chair of the Ethics committee.
- A mandatory artificial intelligence (AI) Use Declaration must be completed at the time of submission. Submissions without a completed declaration may be returned.

GENERAL GUIDELINES

- An author can only be a lead author and present one paper. If the same author is a co-author of another paper, then the other co-author must present.
- Papers must be submitted in MS Word format (No PDF submissions will be accepted).
- Paper submissions must include a cover page, which should be a separate file that includes the title of the paper, the names and surnames of the authors, and the respective university the authors are affiliated with, with the email address of the corresponding author. The paper should include the title of the paper, the abstract, and the details of the paper, but should not have any reference to the authors.
- Papers are accepted in English. British English spelling and punctuation are preferred. Please use double quotation marks, except where “a quotation is ‘within’ a quotation”. Long quotations of 40 words or more should be indented with quotation marks. Recommended indentation is 1cm to the left and right margins.

- Papers should be compiled in the following order: title page (including title of the paper, name(s) and surname(s) of the author(s) and the respective university the author(s) are affiliated to, with the email address of the corresponding author, Acknowledgements, Funding and grant-awarding bodies); abstract; keywords; main text; acknowledgements; references; appendices (as appropriate).
- All persons who have a reasonable claim to authorship must be named in the paper as co-authors; the corresponding author must be authorised by all co-authors to act as an agent on their behalf in all matters pertaining to publication of the paper, and the order of names should be agreed upon by all authors.
- Please supply all details required by any funding and grant-awarding bodies as an Acknowledgment on the title page of the paper, in a separate paragraph¹.
- Authors must not embed equations or image files within their papers.

STYLE GUIDELINES

- Author(s)' name(s): Names of all contributing authors on the title page exactly as you wish them to appear in the published article/conference program.
- Affiliations: List the affiliation of each author (department, university, city, country).
- Correspondence details: Provide an institutional email address for the corresponding author.
- The headings in the paper for the different sub-sections should be as follows:
 - First-level headings, such as abstract, introduction, methodology, conclusion, etc., should be Arial 14, all caps and bold.
 - Second-level headings should be in Arial 12, bold, and sentence case.
 - Third-level headings should be in Arial 12, bold, italics, and sentence case.

¹ Single agency grants: "This work was supported by the [Funding Agency] under Grant [number xxxx]".
Multiple agency grants: "This work was supported by the [Funding Agency 1] under Grant [number xxxx]; [Funding Agency 2] under Grant [number xxxx]; and [Funding Agency 3] under Grant [number xxxx]".

- All figures and tables² must be numbered in the order in which they appear in the paper (e.g. Figure 1, Figure 2, Table 1, Figure 3, Table 2 etc.), and “Figure” or “Table” is written with a capital letter, followed by the figure/table number and a colon, followed by sentence case.
- The content in your tables and figures should not include colour/shading as opposed to patterns as the conference proceedings are distributed in black and white.
- Numbers used in the main text will be typed as follows: One to nine, spell out; 10 onwards, use numbers; no commas, but spaces. Not “20,000” but “20 000”.

REFERENCING GUIDELINES

- All references should use the Harvard reference method as per the Appendix sent out with the Call for Papers and as set out below.
 - References should be inserted into the text by indicating in brackets the name of the author(s) and the year of publication of the text from which the quotation or reference is taken, for example, “Smith (2021) states that ...”, or “the matching concept is not applicable for these purposes (Smith, 2021)”. If more than one author is cited the authors should be presented in alphabetical order e.g. (Gouws & Van der Linde, 2018; Smith, 2021).
 - If the article refers to a particular page, a colon follows the year of publication (no spaces), followed by the page number (again, no spaces), for example, “Smith (1991:14) states that ...”, or “the matching concept is not applicable for these purposes” (Smith, 2021:14).
 - If a cited author has more than one publication in any one year, the articles/other works are distinguished by inserting the letters a, b, etc. after the year of publication, for example, “Smith (2021a:14) states that ...”.

- If two authors have contributed to an article, the reference is shown as Smith and Shaw (2021) in the text, or as (Smith & Shaw, 2021) in brackets.
 - For three or more authors, the first reference refers to Smith, Shaw and Brink (2021) or (Smith, Shaw & Brink, 2021) and thereafter et al. are used as follows: “Smith et al. (2021) state ...” or (Smith et al., 2021).
 - Note that the ampersand (&) is used inside the brackets and in the reference list/bibliography.
 - Footnotes are not used for reference purposes.
 - References to journal articles should be referenced as follows under the heading “REFERENCES” at the end of the manuscript (but before appendices). (Please take note of the indent and the way article names, journal names (indicated in Italics), volumes and page numbers, etc. are included):
- One author:
